WINNIPEG MOTORCYCLIST INSTANTLY KILLED

THROWN HEADLONG INTO APPROACHING ST. PAUL AUTO

RIDER STRUCK CALVES IN ROAD NEAR FT. RIPLEY, SHOCK UNSEATED HIM

HEAD GRUESOMELY MANGLED BY IMPACT WITH THE CAR

J. W. Allen, 214 Sherbrook Street, Winnipeg, a man about 30 years of age, was instantly killed and his friend, Horace Short, 107 Baltimore Road, Winnipeg, was injured, in an accident at 12 o'clock noon today at Fort Ripley on Highway No. 27.

Both men were driving Harley Davidson motorcycles heading towards Brainerd, and were said to have been driving at a reasonable speed. Opposite the Leo Clouse oil station at Fort Ripley the two struck three calves on the road, Allen being thrown off his motorcycle headlong into the approaching car driven by H. A. Hinea, of St. Paul. His head was mangled gruesomely by the impact. Short managed to maintain a grip on his motorcycle and was thrown into the ditch by the automobile. He was immediately rushed to the Little Falls hospital where word has been received that his injuries are not serious. He was injured in the leg. The body of Allen was taken to the Whitney Undertaking Parlor at Brainerd and word was sent out to the relatives of the deceased in Winnipeg.

The cattle in the road which were blamed for the tragic accident were owned by Peter Johnson, of Fort Ripley.

Coroner D. E. Whitney, who was immediately called to the scene of the accident, stated that Mr. Hinea, driver of the car was in no way responsible for the accident. The car it is stated was being driven at a rate of speed between 20 and 25 miles an hour. Occupants of the car were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hinea, Mary Hinea, St. Paul, and Sadie Lilla of Winona.

At the time of the accident both motorcyclists were driving along side by side. Sixty dollars were found on the person of the dead man.

The motorcyclists attended the Brainerd meet of the National Gypsy Tour on Saturday and Sunday and had left the city Sunday, driving to the Twin Cities. They were on their way home when the accident took place.

DEFENSE TO OPEN CASE IN THE MACKAYE TRIAL

EMOTIONAL ACTRESS CHARGED WITH CONCEALING CAUSE OF HUSBAND'S DEATH

UNEXPECTED APPEARANCE OF KELLY FOR STATE MAY AID HER CASE

Los Angeles, June 22.—(UP)—The defense planned to open its case today with testimony from Dorothy Mackaye, emotional actress on trial charged with concealing the cause of the death of her husband, Ray Raymond.

Reading into the records of all testimony Miss Mackaye gave at the trial of Paul Kelly, screen juvenile found guilty of manslaughter following Raymond's death, delayed closing of the prosecution's case yesterday.

Necessity for lengthy testimony on the part of Miss Mackaye, had been eliminated by this reading, it was believed.

Followers of the trial regarded the unexpected appearance of Kelly for the state as an aid to Miss Mackaye's case.

The actress, Kelly told the court, was in no sense guilty of the charges against her. She had no knowledge of the fist fight between Raymond and Kelly until it was over, he said.

Rising in the witness stand, he shouted "No," when asked whether Miss Mackaye had slept in his apartment.

The testimony of "Jungle," Japanese houseboy, that he had served breakfast in bed to his master and Miss Mackaye in the Kelly apartment, he called "lies." He also denied that the actress frequently had stayed all night with him after drinking parties.

Leroy Bagley, Hollywood undertaker, who prepared Raymond's body for burial, testified that no one had asked him to attempt to remove bruises from the body. Neither did anyone ask him to "keep the affair as quiet as possible," he said.

Kelly was returned to the county jail where he awaits ruling on his appeal to the manslaughter conviction.

NAVAL EXPERTS TACKLE PROBLEM AT CONFERENCE

PROPOSALS OF JAPAN, GREAT BRITAIN AND UNITED STATES STUDIED

EACH NATION HAS ITS OWN IDEAS OF WHAT IT WANTS

By HENRY WOOD (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Geneva, June 22.—Naval experts today tackled the problem of removing wide divergencies between the disarmament proposals of Japan, Great Britain and the United States.

A technical committee, on which Admiral Schofield is the American representative, met at 11 o'clock to determine the exact meaning of each of the three projects and to agree on the actual present strength of the respective navies.

Both aspects will require lengthy discussion. Each nation has its own ideas on its own and other proposals, and each has its own figures on the actual and comparative strength of the three navies.

Admiral Schofield will be assisted in the negotiations by Capt. Adolph S. Andrews and Captain William Smyth, of the technical staff of the American delegation.

The technical commission reached its first agreement when it decided that the tonnage to be fixed for various classes of vessels shall include the weight of ships and their armaments, but not of fuel or water. That is virtually the same basis accepted at the Washington conference.

The executive committee of the conference, composed of the heads of the three delegations, will not meet again until Friday, when it will consider a report of the technical commission.

The intimation of Admiral Jellicoe of the British delegation that Britain is more dependent for her existence on protection of trade routes than any other nation, with Japan standing next—which seemed to connote a belief that Britain and Japan required the greatest strength in cruisers for guarding the routes—will be opposed by the American delegation. The Americans will insist that protection of trade routes is quite as important to America as to Britain.

The Americans also will insist that armed merchantmen are one of the most vital factors in modern warfare. The British delegates said in statements to the press that merchant ships equipped with six-inch guns, as envisaged in the American proposals, would have little value as fighting craft.

The Americans contend the great number of naval bases owned by Britain makes it possible for her to patrol the seas with small cruisers of low steaming radius, whereas the United States, with comparatively few bases, required cruisers of the 10,000 ton class. That is the basis of American opposition to the British plan of specifying how many cruisers of each tonnage each nation may have.

STRIKEBREAKERS AND SYMPATHIZERS IN NEAR RIOT

Adena, Ohio, June 22.—(UP)—Strikebreakers and sympathizers of idle union miners engaged in a near riot here today. Those in the automobiles threw missiles in retaliation.

Hovey and Victor Nordley. Nordley was badly beaten in the fight.

Conclusion of the present session of district court next Saturday led to the belief today that the three men held in the county jail without bail will be bound over to the September term of court.

DEPARTMENT OF AIR PROPOSED WITH COL. LINDBERGH AT HEAD

SOCIAL UPHEAVAL BEING WROUGHT IN THIS COUNTRY

RAPID CITY, S. D. QUICKLY ABSORBS SOCIALLY ELITE

MEN OF WASHINGTON BREAK BONDS OF SOCIAL DIS-TINCTION

By PAUL R. MALLON (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Rapid City, S. D., June 22.—Searchers for proof that America is still a democracy, should come to Rapid City.

They will find the A and F restaurant right across the street from the cigar store that has a wooden Indian out in front of it.

Entering at the lunch hour, they can see perhaps the secretary to the president of the United States sitting on the lunch counter stool, eating with satisfaction a chop or a steak, with a cowboy beside him equally at ease.

Men who have the entree to every pink tea and diplomatic dinner in Washington will be found rubbing elbows with the farmers and the cattlemen, and no questions asked.

E. T. Clark, personal secretary to the president, James C. White, secretary of the republican national committee, Col. Winship, personal military aide of President Coolidge, and Maj. James F. Coupal, the president's personal physician, for instance, have made the "A and F" their eating place.

"In Fairland" dance hall up over the milk depot, others of more or less social prominence from Washington dance with the mayor's daughter, alongside waitresses dancing with soldiers from the encampment nearby.

Even some of the heavy bonds of social distinction which guard a president, have been dropped by Mr. Coolidge, there being considerably less formality about all his activities than was usual at the White House in Washington. For instance, today he permitted his housekeeper to come in to the Rapid City bank in a White House car.

MAY SWING ON CIRCLE OF CHAUTAUQUA

PROPOSED TOUR WOULD TAKE HIM TO NEARLY EVERY LARGE CITY

MAY MAKE TOUR JUMPS WITH THE "SPIRIT OF ST. LOUIS"

By WILLIAM J. McEVROY (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, June 22.—Colonel Charles Lindbergh has virtually decided to turn orator for two months and make a nation-wide lecture tour, the United Press was informed by a usually reliable authority.

The youthful New York-to-Paris flyer is leaning strongly toward a swing on a Chautauqua circuit before settling down to business, according to his friends.

The proposed lecture tour would take him to nearly every large city in the country. There is a strong possibility he would make his jumps in the mechanical half of the famous "we" combination, "The Spirit of St. Louis."

Lindbergh wants to acquire a working capital before entering business, and he wants to earn it "by the sweat of his own brow." This he could do on the lecture platform. He also believes his speaking program would aid aviation. He wants to get out among the people, apprise them with his own lips of the value of aviation, and attempt to convince them that air travel is just as safe, if not safer than automobile or railroad transportation.

Upon completion of his Chautauqua tour, if he makes it, according to the United Press' informant, Lindbergh is likely to become general manager of a St. Louis aircraft corporation which will be organized with an existing company as its nucleus.

CHAMBERLIN, LEVINE VISIT BUDAPEST

Vienna, June 22.—(UP)—Clarence D. Chamberlin and Charles A. Levine flew from Vienna to Mathiasfeld flying field, fifteen miles from Budapest today, to be greeted by thousands. They are to return to Vienna late this afternoon.

Bagdad, June 22.—(UP)—Van Lear Black, publisher of the Baltimore Sun, who left Amsterdam June 15 on an airplane flight to Batavia, Dutch East Indies, was held up here while his Dutch mechanic overhauled the Fokker machine after its forced landing Tuesday because of oil trouble.

Black was standing the oppressive heat well.

"We brought plenty of beer along," he explained. "I hesitate to mention that because it is likely to arouse an unworthy feeling of jealousy at home."

4 PERSONS PERISH IN FIRE SWEEPING BOSTON RESIDENCE

Miss Janet Shearer, 20, daughter of the owner, was one of the four persons who perished. Another was her chum, Miss Beatrice B. Howes, 16-year-old daughter of Henry S. Howes, wealthy Boston leather merchant.

The other victims were Miss Helen McLaughlin, 35, the cook, and Miss Alice Scott, 32, a maid. Four firemen were injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Shearer were aboard the family yacht Paprika in Boston harbor at the time. They had planned to sail for New York today.

EARL NELSON IDENTIFIED AS ADRIAN HARRIS

BELIEVED TO BE "STRANGLER" SUSPECT OF THE NORTHWEST

ROOMED AT ONE TIME WITH AN AGED WIDOW AT PORT-LAND, ORE.

Portland, Ore., June 22.—(UP)—Earl Nelson, Winnipeg "strangler" suspect, was positively identified today as Adrian Harris, "strangler" suspect of the Pacific northwest, by Mrs. Sophia Yates, aged widow, in whose home he roomed for several days last winter.

Mrs. Yates furnished the first description of the man last winter, when he gave her several articles of jewelry which were identified as stolen from the body of Mrs. Florence Pithian Monks, murdered a few days previously in Seattle.

Mrs. Yates today picked his picture from a number of rogues' gallery photographs at police headquarters.

This was the third identification of Nelson's picture as that of the strangler.

Russell Gordon, grocery clerk, who saw the man several times, and Mrs. Margaret Metz, who slammed a door in his face when he attempted to force entrance to her home last winter, had previously identified it.

STATE TROOPERS COMB THE WOODS FOR ASSAILANT

POMONA, N. J. LADS CLAIM SEE-ING 2 MEN STAB THIRD BOY

TROOPERS FIND IMPRINT OF BODY IN BLOODSTAINED GRASS

Pomona, N. J., June 22.—(UP)—Fifty New Jersey state troopers searched the woods north and west of here all night in response to the story of two young boys that they had seen two men stabbing a third lad.

Troopers found the imprint of a boy's body in bloodstained grass, surrounded by bits of newspaper and clothing, also blood stained, at the place where the boys said they saw the attack.

The two boys, Tony and Joseph Dellanoe, 9 and 13 years old, respectively, said they were walking through the woods when they saw the two men and the third boy. One of the men, they said, held the boy while the other stabbed him. When they screamed, the men picked up the boy and fled.

The Dellanoe boys ran home but did not tell of the reported stabbing for several hours. They were too frightened to tell about it, they said.

When discovery of the blood-stained grass tended to confirm the story, State Police Captain William J. Carter ordered all 50 members of troop A to search for the men and the boy.

CONTROL OF CHAIN OF ELEVEN INSTITUTIONS

OFFER OF THOMAS E. MITTEN SPLITS THE CONVENTION

LATTER IS PROMINENT PHILADELPHIA RAILWAY OPERATOR AND BANKER

Cleveland, O., June 22.—(UP)—A deadlock was reported to have developed today in the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers convention over the offer of Thomas E. Mitten, Philadelphia railway operator and banker, to take over control of the Brotherhood's chain of 11 banks and seven investment companies.

Decision on the proposal now may be deferred for a week or ten days or until just before the close of the convention and election of officers.

It was also revealed that the Mitten offer called for setting up a $10,000,000 holding company which would gradually take over the various banks and investment companies.

One half of the stock would be subscribed at once, Mitten and the Brotherhood each taking $2,500,000. Each would control six directors of the board of 13, the odd and controlling vote being held by Mitten.

The special finance commission headed by D. G. Myers, Altoona, Pa., continued its inquiry into the Brotherhood's financial deals today, and it was reported a further report on the Mitten proposal would be made later in the day and that Dr. A. A. Mitten, son, and associate of the head of the Mitten enterprises, would again appear before the convention.

The committee was closeted with five members of a Brotherhood committee, headed by W. B. Prenter and included some of the high officials of the Brotherhood.

EMOTIONAL ACTRESS CHARGED WITH CONCEALING CAUSE OF HUSBAND'S DEATH

UNEXPECTED APPEARANCE OF KELLY FOR STATE MAY AID HER CASE

Los Angeles, June 22.—(UP)—The defense planned to open its case today with testimony from Dorothy Mackaye, emotional actress on trial charged with concealing the cause of the death of her husband, Ray Raymond.

PROPOSED TOUR WOULD TAKE HIM TO NEARLY EVERY LARGE CITY

MAY MAKE TOUR JUMPS WITH THE "SPIRIT OF ST. LOUIS"

By WILLIAM J. McEVROY (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, June 22.—Colonel Charles Lindbergh has virtually decided to turn orator for two months and make a nation-wide lecture tour, the United Press was informed by a usually reliable authority.

The youthful New York-to-Paris flyer is leaning strongly toward a swing on a Chautauqua circuit before settling down to business, according to his friends.

The proposed lecture tour would take him to nearly every large city in the country. There is a strong possibility he would make his jump in the mechanical half of the famous "we" combination, "The Spirit of St. Louis."

Lindbergh wants to acquire a working capital before entering business, and he wants to earn it "by the sweat of his own brow." This he could do on the lecture platform. He also believes his speaking program would aid aviation. He wants to get out among the people, apprise them with his own lips of the value of aviation, and attempt to convince them that air travel is just as safe, if not safer than automobile or railroad transportation.

Upon completion of his Chautauqua tour, if he makes it, according to the United Press' informant, Lindbergh is likely to become general manager of a St. Louis aircraft corporation which will be organized with an existing company as its nucleus.

CHAMBERLIN, LEVINE VISIT BUDAPEST

Vienna, June 22.—(UP)—Clarence D. Chamberlin and Charles A. Levine flew from Vienna to Mathiasfeld flying field, fifteen miles from Budapest today, to be greeted by thousands. They are to return to Vienna late this afternoon.

Chamberlin and Levine were guests of the Austrian government last night at a gala opera performance.

Dr. Michael Hainisch, president of Austria, cabled President Coolidge congratulations on the aviators' feat.

MRS. CHAPLIN TO CONCLUDE HER DEPOSITION

Los Angeles, June 22.—(UP)—Lita Grey Chaplin was to appear in the office of her husband's attorney here today, and conclude her deposition to her divorce complaint.

Unless another continuance is granted, tomorrow will be the last day she has to file her answer to charges Spencer Chaplin's cross complaint. Trial of the suit has been set for August 22.

PUBLISHER CARRIES DUTCH BEER IN HIS AIR YACHT

Bagdad, June 22.—(UP)—Van Lear Black, publisher of the Baltimore Sun, who left Amsterdam June 15 on an airplane flight to Batavia, Dutch East Indies, was held up here while his Dutch machine overhauled the Fokker machine Tuesday because of oil trouble. Black was standing the oppressive heat well.

"We brought plenty of beer along," he explained. "I hesitate to mention that because it is likely to arouse an unworthy feeling of jealousy at home."

4 PERSONS PERISH IN FIRE SWEEPING BOSTON RESIDENCE

Boston, June 22.—(UP)—An overheated electric iron brought tragedy today to the families of two Boston millionaires.

Flames starting from the iron in the basement swept the four floors of the home of William L. Shearer, Jr., vice president of the Falmes Furniture company.

Miss Janet Shearer, 20, daughter of the owner, was one of the four persons who perished. Another was her chum, Miss Beatrice B. Howes, 16-year-old daughter of Henry S. Howes, wealthy Boston leather merchant.

The other victims were Miss Helen McLaughlin, 35, the cook, and Miss Alice Scott, 32, a maid. Four firemen were injured. Mr. and Mrs. Shearer were aboard the family yacht Paprika in Boston harbor at the time. They had planned to sail for New York today.

EARL NELSON IDENTIFIED AS ADRIAN HARRIS

BELIEVED TO BE "STRANGLER" SUSPECT OF THE NORTHWEST

ROOMED AT ONE TIME WITH AN AGED WIDOW AT PORTLAND, ORE.

Portland, Ore., June 22.—(UP)—Earl Nelson, Winnipeg "strangler" suspect, was positively identified today as Adrian Harris, "strangler" suspect of the Pacific northwest, by Mrs. Sophia Yates, aged widow in whose home he roomed for several days last winter.

Mrs. Yates furnished the first description of the man last winter, when he gave her several articles of jewelry which were identified as stolen from the body of Mrs. Florence Fithian Monks, murdered a few days previously in Seattle.

Mrs. Yates today picked his picture from a number of rogues' gallery photographs at police headquarters.

This was the third identification of Nelson's picture as that of the strangler.

Russell Gordon, grocery clerk, who saw the man several times, and Mrs. Margaret Metz, who slammed a door in his face when he attempted to force entrance to her home last winter, had previously identified it.

STATE TROOPERS COMB THE WOODS FOR ASSAILANT

POMONA, N. J. LADS CLAIM SEEING 2 MEN STAB THIRD BOY

TROOPERS FIND IMPRINT OF BODY IN BLOODSTAINED GRASS

Pomona, N. J., June 22.—(UP)—Fifty New Jersey state troopers searched the woods north and west of here all night in response to the story of two young boys that they had seen two men stabbing a third lad.

Troopers found the imprint of a boy's body in bloodstained grass, surrounded by bits of newspaper and clothing, also blood stained, at the place where the boys said they saw the attack.

The two boys, Tony and Joseph Dellanoe, 9 and 13 years old, respectively, said they were walking through the woods when they saw the two men and the third boy. One of the men, they said, held the boy while the other stabbed him. When they screamed, the men picked up the boy and fled.

The Dellanoe boys ran home but did not tell of the reported stabbing for several hours. They were too frightened to tell about it, they said.

When discovery of the blood-stained grass tended to confirm the story, State Police Captain William J. Carter ordered all 50 members of troop A to search for the men and the boy.

CONTROL OF CHAIN OF ELEVEN INSTITUTIONS

OFFER OF THOMAS E. MITTEN SPLITS THE CONVENTION

LATTER IS PROMINENT PHILADELPHIA RAILWAY OPERATOR AND BANKER

Cleveland, O., June 22.—(UP)—A deadlock was reported to have developed today in the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers convention over the offer of Thomas E. Mitten, Philadelphia railway operator and banker, to take over control of the Brotherhood's chain of 11 banks and seven investment companies.

Decision on the proposal now may be deferred for a week or ten days or until just before the close of the convention and election of officers.

It was also revealed that the Mitten offer called for setting up a $10,000,000 holding company which would gradually take over the various banks and investment companies.

One half of the stock would be subscribed at once, Mitten and the Brotherhood each taking $2,500,000. Each would control six directors of the board of 13, the odd and controlling vote being held by Mitten.

The special finance commission headed by D. G. Myers, Altoona, Pa., continued its inquiry into the Brotherhood's financial deals today, and it was reported a further report on the Mitten proposal would be made later in the day and that Dr. A. A. Mitten, son, and associate of the head of the Mitten enterprises, would again appear before the convention.

The committee was closeted with five members of a Brotherhood committee, headed by W. B. Prenter and included some of the high officials of the Brotherhood.

'TONY THE WOP' WAIVES EXTRADITION

St. Paul, Minn., June 22.—(UP)—Anthony Parelli, better known as "Tony the Wop," today waived extradition and will be returned to Des Moines, Ia. He is under indictment there for possessing burglar tools.

Parelli and six others were arrested in a raid here which netted police all the paraphernalia of an automobile bandit gang, including three automobiles. Shotguns, revolvers, and burglar tools were taken.

Parelli has been identified by Twin City residents as the perpetrator of several robberies, including the hold-up of I. H. Ruben, theatrical man, in which $15,000 in jewels and cash was taken from his home.

JOSEPH BERNSTEIN SURRENDERS TO AUTHORITIES

New Orleans, June 22.—(UP)—Joseph Bernstein, alleged Detroit gunman and at one time bodyguard for Theodore Werner, St. Louis gambler and owner of Victory Inn, roadhouse near here, who was shot to death in his New Orleans apartment April 22, surrendered to police today and was placed in Parish prison charged with Werner's murder.

Bernstein was indicted by a grand jury yesterday. Another man, said to be Thomas Nelson, believed to be in St. Louis, was also indicted for the murder and is being sought. Bernstein had been free on $2,500 bail pending the grand jury action.

PETITION PRESENTED IS NEARLY WHOLE MILE IN LENGTH

Boston, June 22.—(UP)—Nearly a mile long and containing approximately half a million names, an international petition asking a public investigation of the Sacco-Vanzetti murder case was presented to Gov. Alvan T. Fuller's office today.

The petition, consisting of two paper rolls each about two and a half feet in diameter, was taken to the state house in an automobile by Gardner Jackson and Joseph Mora of the Sacco-Vanzetti defense committee.

It was believed the petition might be viewed at today's meeting of the executive council.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR A CRIME WAVE

PEOPLE are in the habit of laying on some one else the ills which infest the country, instead of taking on their own shoulders the responsibility. One eminent jurist has said within the last few months that if the people do not get the kind of government they want they do get the kind of government they deserve. "Given men of integrity on the bench," continues Charles E. Whelan, editor of the Modern Woodman official magazine in a comprehensive editorial, "and a wholesome public sentiment to back up their action and crime shall cease to be the unsolved problem of the day. If you have not done your share to help in the enforcement of the law and stood four-square behind the officers charged with the immediate responsibility as guardians of the peace do not now wince that it is impossible to meet the present situation."

"Organized crime, with its force of operators, fences, lawyers, jury-fixers, alibi witnesses, friendly judges, expert jail deliverers and lesser employees, challenges a continually quarreling 'respectable' citizenship, politically, socially religiously and racially divided, to detect and punish it. Professional and nonprofessional weepers are promptly on hand as soon as an arrest is made and carry the abnormal sentimentalists along the course of the criminal proceedings on rivers of tears in boats of eloquence fashioned by the counsel for the defense. The stage is set by crime from the beginning to the end and they get the public to act as 'the mob' in the spectacle, without pay."

"According to a statement made in an article in this month's Modern Woodman, there are more murderers at large in the United States than the total number of soldiers in the standing army. If this is true even approximately the perpetrators of lesser crimes unpunished and preying on the people must mount to 200,000. Yet a concerted and determined effort to check the condition is now and has been for years entirely lacking, except in spots and for a short time only."

"And so long as the present general attitude of indifference on the part of the citizenship to any crime not immediately concerning the particular individual continues and punishment is neither swift nor certain this horde of criminals must increase. So long as criminals are made into heroes and their lawyers are gathered to the bosoms of the public and feted as victorious generals, and the coffers of crime-made money received in fees are augmented by the outpouring of the money of respectability in fatuous admiration there can be but little change."

"With one hundred million and more of people submitting to the depredations of a conscienceless minority and permitting crime to continue without arising to the seriousness of the unchecked and unpunished malefactions it must be conceded that the jurist is right and that the people are getting what they deserve."

VALUE OF OUR PARKS

In his address at Hammond, Indiana, June 14, dedicating Wicker Memorial Park to World War Veterans, President Calvin Coolidge emphasized the value of our parks in general when he said:

"Now, there is scarcely a municipality in our country that has not made some provision for these important functions. Almost as much attention is given to providing places for the people to play as is given to furnishing them with places to live and places to work."

"The present century has seen a tremendously vital development in the opening up of small parks in congested centers, the laying out of playgrounds for children, the building of community centers to minister to the normal social life of the young folks, and the establishment of athletic and recreational fields for the general public."

"The wholesome, strengthening, refining influence which all of these have had upon American life is beyond estimation. It is all an important part of the dominant purpose of this Republic to raise up a people who are fit to rule."

"The immediate aim of these efforts is to improve the public health. It is realized that sound bodies mean an increased industrial efficiency. But the purpose goes beyond this to the cleansing and clarifying of the mind, raising the whole standard of life. It is becoming better and better understood that a sound body, an informed mind, normal social contacts, and that contentment which comes from opportunity for a broader self-expression, are all vital factors in the preservation of our national existence. The significance of this development is triumphantly American."

"In this country the sciences, the arts, the humanities, are not reserved for a supposed aristocracy, but for the whole of the people. Here we do not extend privilege to a few, we extend privilege to everybody. That which was only provided for kings and nobles in former days, we bestow on the people at large. The destiny of America is to give the people still more royal powers, to strengthen their hand for a more effective grasp upon the scepter."

COOPERATION EVIDENCED

WORK of the Lions club in interesting rail passenger and freight traffic men in this lake country is evidently bearing fruit, for with other forces working in gaining such interest, we note their attendance at a Brainerd lake region summer resort.

The Northern Pacific Railway company is working up a nice business in Twin Cities-Crow Wing county passenger traffic. The first special trains of the season were run last night from St. Paul to Pequot and included this train layout:

Train No. 1, Washburn-Crosby people for Breezy Point Lodge, 8 standard sleeping cars, 1 dynamo car and 1 N. P. observation car. This train arrived at Brainerd about 3 a. m. and left about half an hour later, parking at Pequot until 8 a. m.

Train No. 2 following 15 minutes later. This second section included seven business cars of railway passenger traffic and freight managers, 1 dynamo car, and 1 N. P. observation car. These cars will stay on the Pequot tracks until the convention closes.

ANOTHER CONVENTION HERE

In giving a summary of conventions booked for Brainerd this year, the Brainerd Dispatch forgot to mention that of the West Central Dental Society, whose meeting will be held here July 29 and 30. About 100 delegates are expected. Seven dentists of the city are affiliated with the society and preparations are being rapidly made to entertain the guests.

Pyramid Built Eight

Thousand Years Ago

Perhaps the oldest monument in America is Cuicuilco (Meeting Place for Singing and Dancing), a three-tier pyramid, which is only half an hour by motor from Mexico City. Prof. Byron Cummings of the University of Arizona recently undertook the excavation of this mound at the request of Dr. Manuel Gamio and with the assistance of the Mexican government. The original pyramid was a truncated cone 412 feet in diameter and 52 feet in height, surmounted by a dancing platform and an altar in the shape of a horseshoe. It was built at a period when men knew only how to heap one stone upon another. The inclination of the pile at an angle of 45 degrees and the weight of the blocks of andesite and basalt have preserved the monument amazingly.

When the digging began the mound lay buried beneath fifteen to seventeen feet of sand, clay and rock, under which again was a deep layer of lava, covering the platform at the summit to a depth of eighteen feet. The eruption of the volcano Ajusco in some forgotten era served not only to preserve this ancient monument but to date it. The Padrazal, a flow of lava some fifteen miles long and three miles wide, which occurred in this neighborhood and which is declared by geologists to be 7,000 years old, is not to be found on Cuicuilco, but rather lava from an unquestionably earlier flow. Doctor Cummings believes that the mound was reared by Americans who lived at least 8,000 years ago. On reaching the summit of this mountain, made by the labor of primitive man, one finds the ancient altar of rough, unchiseled stones, calling up a vision of a circle of naked, hairy savages squatting, with their bodies swaying to the rhythm of their tuneless hymns of worship.—Martha R. Allen in Current History.

Gold Rush in Graveyard

A small locality in the Burgenland district of Austria, near the Hungarian frontier, had a gold rush all its own a short time ago. Through an accident an ancient graveyard dating from the time of the migration of the races was discovered. The Oldenburg museum began to excavate. Ancient gold vessels were found. When the farmers of the community heard of this they rushed to the scene and began to dig for gold, instead of for last year's cabbage. In the scramble for the likely places fights developed between the farmers, until a large force of gendarmes was called to keep the gold fever down. Anyway, outside of a few more urns nothing much was found.—Chicago News.

There Are Frogs and Frogs

A biological concern in New Orleans owns a number of valuable frogs. Recently the frogs were missing and the police were informed. Later two men were caught with frogs in their possession. They claimed to have caught them in the marshes around the city. The head of the biological concern, however, "knew his onions"; he demonstrated to the court's satisfaction that the deep notes of the frogs varied considerably from those of ordinary frogs caught in the marshes. The men were convicted and the frogs were allowed to hop back home.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Girls

"Commodore Gerry," a New York yachtsman said of the noted philanthropist—"Commodore Elbridge T. Gerry had old-fashioned views, and the modern girl interested and alarmed him."

"He was talking one day at a luncheon in his Newport house about the modern girl's dress—its audacity, you know."

"Modern fashions," he said, "are charming, but—"

He hesitated, then he went on: "Girls used to want to be looked up to. Now they want to be looked round at."

Imitates Human Voice

By the use of an organ-pipe reed, his fingers and a bellows operated by foot, an English inventor has succeeded in imitating the human voice to an extent that is uncanny. The reed serves as the vocal organ and the fingers as the tongue and lips. He recently produced the sentence, "Hello, London; are you there?" as clearly as if he were telephoning from New York. It is claimed that the experiment proves that the human voice is largely a mechanical result of muscular and nervous action.

That Settled It

Mrs. MacMasters was in a quandary. A pair of Russian boots and a pair of elegant shoes looked equally attractive, and as there was no difference in either the fit or the price the poor woman did not know which to choose.

For a long time she hesitated, wavering between the two kinds of footwear. Then she turned to her husband and asked his opinion.

"Well, mither," he answered cautiously, "if ye choose yon Russians ye'll aye be buyin' blackie!"—London Answers.

"No such a thing!" retorted Mrs. Johnson. "You wasn't there a-tall. You're just telling me another whopper, so you are!"

"Huh!" loudly returned Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge. "What's the use of wasting a good excuse on a fellow's wife, anyhow?"—Kansas City Star.

BRAINERD
25 YEARS AGO

From the Daily Dispatch

June 21, 1902

This afternoon the following delegates were elected to go to the Democratic state convention, which convenes in St. Paul: Dr. W. Hemstead, D. M. Clark, J. M. Elder, Con O'Brien, H. P. Dunn, C. D. Johnson, Robert McGee, O. P. Erickson, Tim Reilly and J. W. Koop. The delegates were instructed and the convention passed no resolutions.

Next Sunday the big event of the season in the way of an excursion will occur when the firemen of the city will run an excursion from this city to Bemidji. The boys are out hustling, selling tickets and they have sold a large number and expect to sell about 1,000 before they start. Besides other amusements it is expected that there will be a ball game between Brainerd and some other good team.

Mail Carrier Nolan now has his turn and is enjoying a much needed rest. He expects to spend a portion of his two week's vacation at the lakes.

J. D. Adams, superintendent of the St. Paul foundry returned home today after a fishing trip.

Mayor Dawes of Pine River was in the city this morning for a short time.

Syd Chaplin as Old Bill in Bairnsfather's "The Better 'Ole" will be the attraction at the Lyceum Theatre for three days beginning tonight. His impersonation of the lovable old British soldier has generally been accepted as the outstanding piece of motion picture acting of the year. In it Syd leaps to the heights of comedy fame.

The picture itself has been acclaimed everywhere as the funniest thing that has come out of the war villages of France. It has been given a monumental production by Warner Bros., with Charles Reisner, the former gag man of the Charlie Chaplin comedies, emerging as one of the star directors of laugh shows.

HEDDA HOYT TELLS ABOUT EVENING STYLING

By HEDDA HOYT

New York, June 22.—(U)—The straight-lined sheath gown is decidedly out of the picture at smart evening functions. Nearly every gown is slightly bloused with a full skirt and belted waist-line. The waist-line is usually placed at the top of the hips although some of the slender girls wear normal-waisted frocks.

More white evening gowns are seen at present than any other single color. Light gray and nude-toned crepe satin gowns without ornamentation other than fabric drapery or bows are among the newest types for evening wear. One finds the sophisticated matron of fashion choosing these simpler crepe satins in preference to chiffon, georgette or beaded gowns.

Silver slippers of kid or brocade lend above all others for Summer evening occasions. Satins in tones to match the frocks are also worn. Hostelry remains pale flesh-toned.

Square or V-necked evening gowns are smarter this year than rounded necks. The extremely low U-shaped rear decolletage is seen quite often but since skirts are short this neckline has a tendency to make one's figure appear a bit out of proportion. Therefore higher U-shaped are advised for the rear of one's decolletage.

With the period gown, the choker of pale rose-quartz, amethyst, coral or crystal is preferable to longer strands of pearls. And, while mentioning the period gown, let us say that shoulder corsages should not be used upon them. Flowers may be used upon the skirt if one wishes but not upon the bodice.

For the very young girl, tulle frocks with semi-fitted bodices and flaring skirts are the prettiest things of the season. Square necklines and

RESPONSIBILITY FOR A CRIME WAVE

PEOPLE are in the habit of laying on some one else the ills which infest the country, instead of taking on their own shoulders the responsibility. One eminent jurist has said within the last few months that if the people do not get the kind of government they want they do get the kind of government they deserve. "Given men of integrity on the bench," continues Charles E. Whelan, editor of the Modern Woodman official magazine in a comprehensive editorial, "and a wholesome public sentiment to back up their action and crime shall cease to be the unsolved problem of the day. If you have not done your share to help in the enforcement of the law and stood four-square behind the officers charged with the immediate responsibility as guardians of the peace do not now wince that it is impossible to meet the present situation."

"Organized crime, with its force of operators, fences, lawyers, jury-fixers, alibi witnesses, friendly judges, expert jail deliverers and lesser employees, challenges a continually quarreling 'respectable' citizenship, politically, socially, religiously and racially divided, to detect and punish it. Professional and nonprofessional weepers are promptly on hand as soon as an arrest is made and carry the abnormal sentimentalists along the course of the criminal proceedings on rivers of tears in boats of eloquence fashioned by the counsel for the defense. The stage is set by crime from the beginning to the end and they get the public to act as 'the mob' in the spectacle, without pay."

"According to a statement made in an article in this month's Modern Woodman, there are more murderers at large in the United States than the total number of soldiers in the standing army. If this is true even approximately the perpetrators of lesser crimes unpunished and preying on the people must mount to 200,000. Yet a concerted and determined effort to check the condition is now and has been for years entirely lacking, except in spots and for a short time only."

"And so long as the present general attitude of indifference on the part of the citizenship to any crime not immediately concerning the particular individual continues and punishment is neither swift nor certain this horde of criminals must increase. So long as criminals are made into heroes and their lawyers are gathered to the bosoms of the public and feted as victorious generals, and the coffers of crime-made money received in fees are augmented by the outpouring of the money of respectability in fatuous admiration there can be but little change."

"With one hundred million and more of people submitting to the depredations of a conscienceless minority and permitting crime to continue without arising to the seriousness of the unchecked and unpunished malefactions it must be conceded that the jurist is right and that the people are getting what they deserve."

VALUE OF OUR PARKS

In his address at Hammond, Indiana, June 14, dedicating Wicker Memorial Park to World War Veterans, President Calvin Coolidge emphasized the value of our parks in general when he said:

"Now, there is scarcely a municipality in our country that has not made some provision for these important functions. Almost as much attention is given to providing places for the people to play as is given to furnishing them with places to live and places to work."

"The present century has seen a tremendously vital development in the opening up of small parks in congested centers, the laying out of playgrounds for children, the building of community centers to minister to the normal social life of the young folks, and the establishment of athletic and recreational fields for the general public."

"The wholesome, strengthening, refining influence which all of these have had upon American life is beyond estimation. It is all an important part of the dominant purpose of this Republic to raise up a people who are fit to rule."

"The immediate aim of these efforts is to improve the public health. It is realized that sound bodies mean an increased industrial efficiency. But the purpose goes beyond this to the cleansing and clarifying of the mind, raising the whole standard of life. It is becoming better and better understood that a sound body, an informed mind, normal social contacts, and that contentment which comes from opportunity for a broader self-expression, are all vital factors in the preservation of our national existence. The significance of this development is triumphantly American."

"In this country the sciences, the arts, the humanities, are not reserved for a supposed aristocracy, but for the whole of the people. Here we do not extend privilege to a few, we extend privilege to everybody. That which was only provided for kings and nobles in former days, we bestow on the people at large. The destiny of America is to give the people still more royal powers, to strengthen their hand for a more effective grasp upon the scepter."

COOPERATION EVIDENCED

WORK of the Lions club in interesting rail passenger and freight traffic men in this lake country is evidently bearing fruit, for with other forces working in gaining such interest, we note their attendance at a Brainerd lake region summer resort.

The Northern Pacific railway company is working up a nice business in Twin Cities-Crow Wing county passenger traffic. The first special trains of the season were run last night from St. Paul to Pequot and included this train layout:

Train No. 1, Washburn-Crosby people for Breezy Point Lodge, 8 standard sleeping cars, 1 dynamo car and 1 N. P. observation car. This train arrived at Brainerd about 3 a. m. and left about half an hour later, parking at Pequot until 8 a. m.

Train No. 2 following 15 minutes later. This second section included seven business cars of railway passenger traffic and freight managers, 1 dynamo car, and 1 N. P. observation car. These cars will stay on the Pequot tracks until the convention closes.

ANOTHER CONVENTION HERE

IN giving a summary of conventions booked for Brainerd this year, the Brainerd Dispatch forgot to mention that of the West Central Dental Society, whose meeting will be held here July 29 and 30. About 100 delegates are expected. Seven dentists of the city are affiliated with the society and preparations are being rapidly made to entertain the guests.

Good Elimination Is Essential to Good Health.

THE kidneys are the blood filters. If they fail to function properly there is apt to be a retention of toxic poisons in the blood. A dull, languid feeling and, sometimes, toxic backaches, headaches, and dizziness are symptoms of this condition. Further evidence of improper kidney function is often found in burning or scanty passage of secretions. The N. E. Brainerd Boosters team are steadily wending their way to the top of the percentage column in the Lake Region Baseball League. With only one defeat, they conquered the Randall nine last Sunday to the tune of 5-2.

Swanville who heads the list with a 1000 per cent rating, will play the locals here next Sunday, in their first encounter. The clash is expected to be the fastest and most interesting in the Brainerd series.

Randsell, pitcher for the opponents scored 12 strikeouts and held Brainerd hitless and scoreless until the sixth inning. It was during this period that the visitors made their lone two points.

Jarboe, pitching for the locals, had seven strikeouts to his credit and held Randall scoreless after the first inning.

Brainerd played wonderful ball and had an airtight defense. Skiba thrilled the stands by making two hits when most needed, bringing in two runs.

GOLF'S GREATEST MARATHON HERO BLISTERS FEET

By PAUL FREDRIX
United Press Staff Correspondent
Washington, June 22.—(UP)—“Golf's greatest marathon” was today a thing of history, blistered feet, lost poundage, and discussion over just how great it was. Larry Dey, 21-year-old dime size golfer, could lay claim to some kind of record, two “charley horses” and a $25 prize if he wished to endanger his amateur standing—for playing 243 consecutive holes yesterday over the East Potomac course.

Eddie Tipton had a trimmer waistline, raw “dogs” and a split toe for lasting 218 holes to beat his former local record of 216.

And Melvin Luttrell, 16, who rose from caddy to marathon pace-setter during the grueling day, claimed 217 holes, one better than the old local mark, and went back caddying.

Dey said after a night of pillow-pounding that he guessed 243 holes might not be the world's record. Someone, he didn't know the name, had done 256 holes in Akron, Ohio, in 1923. Or perhaps it was in 1924. Or it might have been in New Orleans or Keokuk. But anyway 243 holes were enough personal record for Larry Dey.

New York, June 22.—Two signatures on a dummy contract for the convenience of movie photographers, a permit from the boxing commission to scale prices at the Yankee stadium from $3 to $27.50 and a series of handshakes were all that remained today between Tex Rickard and a million dollar fight. The principals will be Jack Dempsey, the former heavyweight champion, and Jack Sharkey, the bashful Boston heavyweight.

Dempsey was due here today and unless Sharkey rebels all the principals will meet for an official announcement that the match has been signed for July 21.

Sharkey kicked over the traces yesterday when Dempsey failed to appear, thus keeping Sharkey sweltering in New York when he wanted to be elsewhere.

Rickard explained that Dempsey stopped in Wilmington, Del., to see his mother-in-law. Sharkey roared. “Who does he think he is, keeping me hanging around in this heat,” inquired the Boston Chesterfield. “I got more of a family than he has and here I am waiting on him. I'm all signed and everything and I want to get some place where it's cool. Before you get me over here tomorrow you got to show me that he's here. And that goes!”

Then he stormed out of Rickard's palatial offices.

Rickard half-way admitted that he hasn't reached a definite agreement with Dempsey but added, “It won't take much time.”

It was indicated Dempsey was satisfied with what Rickard offered him for a return match against Gene Tunney if he wins from Sharkey.

Cardinals, 6 to 5. The second was a nine inning slaughter, 12 to 3.

Another hero was Frank Hogan, catcher of the Boston Braves, whose two home runs and two singles played an important part in the Braves' victory over the New York Giants. Hogan spanked a homer to help the Braves tie the score in the ninth, and his homer with Eddie Farrell on the paths scored the winning run.

Hughie Critz of the Cincinnati Reds hit a single in the 10th inning of the Reds-Pirates game, and that single scored Ethnan Allen, giving the Reds a 7-6 game. The Pirates had rallied in the ninth to tie the score. Paul Waner, who had hit safely in the 23 preceding games, went without a single in Tuesday's game.

Dazzy Vance, pitching in his 1925 form, fanned nine batters, allowed five hits—although one was Cy Williams' 12th homer of 1927, and the Brooklyn Dodgers beat the Phillies, 7 to 3.

The New York Yankees beat the Boston Red Sox in both games of a double header. The first game went to the Yanks, 7 to 3, and Lou Gehrig slammed out home run No. 18 for the season. The second game went to the Yanks, 7 to 1. Ruth got a double but retired from the contest in the seventh, because his injured right knee started to bother him.

The Philadelphia Athletics split a double header with the Washington Senators, before 25,000 Philadelphia fans. The first game, featured by the hitting of Harris, Goslin and Bluege, went to the Senators, 5 to 4. The second was won by the Mackmen, 8 to 2, who collected nine hits off Walter Johnson, whose team played raggedly behind him.

Rain prevented a Chicago White Sox-St. Louis Browns double header, which will be run off today.

Columbus, O.—Columbus defeated St. Paul 13 to 4 in a somewhat hectic contest here. Umpire baiting occurred throughout the game, rain caused an hour and fifteen minutes delay in the middle of the fourth inning and a near riot by fans was stopped by police reserves.

Hibbing, Minnesota

Dear Sir:

We are using your Iso-Vis in sixteen cars and busses and find that it is giving us perfect satisfaction.

We have used it in our touring cars on long trips with the same satisfactory results. We took the word of no one as to what this oil would do but bought a barrel and tested it to our own satisfaction. Since then we have purchased a number of barrels.

Yours truly,

E. A. Andrews,
Garage Foreman I.S.D. No. 27

Iso-Vis was adopted by this garage after its merits had been tested and proved. Now it is being used in 16 cars and busses—giving “perfect satisfaction.”

Because Iso-Vis is a motor oil of constant viscosity—a revolutionary development of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) which solves all dilution problems—it gives remarkable performance. That's the secret of its enormous popularity!

Don't take anybody's word for Iso-Vis. Just give it a test yourself! 30c per quart at any Standard Oil Service Station and at licensed garages.

THE ST. LOUIS CARDINAL STAR
SHORTSTOP INJURED IN CARDS-CUBS GAME

HIS EFFORT MAY KEEP HIM OUT
OF GAME THE REST OF SEASON

(By United Press)
Yesterday's hero—Tommy Thevenow, St. Louis Cardinals' star shortstop, who broke an ankle sliding into second base, in the second game of the Cards-Cubs double header. Thevenow's effort will probably keep him out of the game for the rest of the year. He was the world series hero of 1926.

The Cardinals tumbled the Cubs into third place in the National League standing by winning both games. The first one was a 13 inning thriller, which went to the

In fair weather or foul, zero nights or rainy days, I have always found that my car starts instantly and performs perfectly with Champion Spark Plugs—they're dependable.

Cardinals, 6 to 5. The second was a nine inning slaughter, 12 to 3.

Another hero was Frank Hogan, catcher of the Boston Braves, whose two home runs and two singles played an important part in the Braves' victory over the New York Giants. Hogan spanked a homer to help the Braves tie the score in the ninth, and his homer with Eddie Farrell on the paths scored the winning run.

Hughie Critz of the Cincinnati Reds hit a single in the 10th inning of the Reds-Pirates game, and that single scored Ethan Allen, giving the Reds a 7-6 game. The Pirates had rallied in the ninth to tie the score. Paul Waner, who had hit safely in the 23 preceding games, went without a single in Tuesday's game.

Dazzy Vance, pitching in his 1923 form, fanned nine batters, allowed five hits—although one was Cy Williams' 12th homer of 1927, and the Brooklyn Dodgers beat the Phillies, 7 to 3.

The New York Yankees beat the Boston Red Sox in both games of a double header. The first game went to the Yanks, 7 to 3, and Lou Gehrig slammed out home run No. 18 for the season. The second game went to the Yanks, 7 to 1. Ruth got a double but retired from the contest in the seventh, because his injured right knee started to bother him.

The Philadelphia Athletics split a double header with the Washington Senators, before 25,000 Philadelphia fans. The first game, featured by the hitting of Harris, Goslin and Bluege, went to the Senators, 5 to 4. The second was won by the Mack-men, 8 to 2, who collected nine hits off Walter Johnson, whose team played raggedly behind him.

Rain prevented a Chicago White Sox-St. Louis Browns double header, which will be run off today.

Columbus, O.—Columbus defeated St. Paul 13 to 4 in a somewhat hectic contest here. Umpire baiting occurred throughout the game, rain caused an hour and fifteen minutes delay in the middle of the fourth inning and a near riot by fans was stopped by police reserves.

Test Out Iso=Vis

for yourself—as did the foreman of a garage, who wrote this letter.

Independent School District No. 27
Hibbing, Minnesota, February 14, 1927

Mr. E. J. Stehlin,
c/o Standard Oil Co.
Hibbing, Minnesota

Dear Sir:

We are using your Iso-Vis in sixteen cars and busses and find that it is giving us perfect satisfaction.

We have used it in our touring cars on long trips with the same satisfactory results. We took the word of no one as to what this oil would do but bought a barrel and tested it to our own satisfaction. Since then we have purchased a number of barrels.

Yours truly,
E. A. Andrews,
Garage Foreman I.S.D. No. 27

Iso-Vis was adopted by this garage after its merits had been tested and proved. Now it is being used in 16 cars and busses—giving “perfect satisfaction.”

Because Iso-Vis is a motor oil of constant viscosity—a revolutionary development of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) which solves all dilution problems—it gives remarkable performance. That's the secret of its enormous popularity!

Don't take anybody's word for Iso-Vis. Just give it a test yourself! 30c per quart at any Standard Oil Service Station and at licensed garages.

Iso-Vis “F” for Fords.

WHAT PRICE GLORY?

There is a lot of glory in being able to give our customers real honest values at the prices we can make.

This glory has been won by a merchandising idea which originated about six years ago when five clothiers decided to buy their merchandise together.

The idea has grown so that now there are 134 clothing stores buying their merchandise together, and they are known as the Allied Clothiers.

Every one of these stores have pledged themselves to furnish their customers the best in their line at prices which save their customers money.

There is a lot of glory in being able to do this, and the buying power of these 134 clothing stores makes this possible.

328 INMATES OF PENITENTIARY STAGE MUTINY

OVERPOWER 14 GUARDS, HOLD
THEM PRISONERS IN
MINE OF STATE

PRISONERS OF LANSING, KANSAS
INSTITUTION FORBIDDEN
CIGARETS

Lansing, Kansas, June 22.—(UP)—Silence, the silence of expectancy, was the watchword at the Kansas state penitentiary today, as officials and prisoners alike waited for word from 328 inmates of the prison who are holding themselves prisoners in a mine of the institution.

No word has been had from the men since yesterday noon when they mutinied, overpowered fourteen guards and held the guards prisoners in the mine with them. The flare came as a result of prison authorities' refusal to permit cigarettes or cigaret papers to be given the men from outside the prison walls.

The mutiny took a more serious turn last night, when other prisoners rioted within their cells. One guard, J. F. Thomas, was stabbed several times by a prisoner and this morning was said to be in a serious condition.

The riot in cell house B was of short duration. Five guards were overpowered by a group of men, said to have been led by Delno Lautner, convicted of murder from Atkinson, Kans.

As the prisoners filed to their cells after being counted in, eleven of them formed a group near one of the inner doors of the prison and attacked the guards as they followed in the rear of the line. Thomas was the last guard.

"You'll play hell locking me in a cell," he told the men.

A scuffle ensued and Thomas was stabbed. R. H. Hudspeth, acting warden in the absence of Warden W. H. Mackey, noticed the disturbance and hastily summoned all remaining guards. These were quickly armed and rushed to cell house B.

Breaking in a window, Hudspeth shoved a pistol through and threatened to shoot if the men did not surrender. He fired two shots and one prisoner fell, shot through the leg. The others surrendered and today are spending their time in solitary confinement.

Three knives, apparently made from files, were found in the group. J. Dawson from whom one of these was taken is said to be the man who stabbed Thomas.

No action is to be taken by authorities in connection with the men in the mine. They will have to give up sooner or later, in the opinion of the officials. There is no food and little water available for them and it is only a question of time until they will be forced to surrender, it was said.

Houston, Tex., June 22.—32 long-term prisoners of the Ferguson prison farm near Madisonville are being sought in thick woods of the Trinity river valley today, following a break from the farm early this morning. Thirty-five men participated in the break, but three were recaptured.

The men fled after overpowering two guards, according to meager reports here. All telephone wires to the prison farm were cut and little information was available as to the break.

It is believed the guards were uninjured, from first reports. Local authorities reported the break but other than saying they had been asked to aid in search for the men, could give no detail of the affair.

STATE CONTINUES TESTIMONY ON HOUSE OF DAVID

ANOTHER MAJOR WITNESS TO BE PRESENTED IN
TRIAL

ADJOURNMENT FOLLOWS AND
DEFENSE WILL TRY TO
REFUTE CHARGES

St. Joseph, Mich., June 22.—The attempt of the state of Michigan to dissolve the now famous House of David religious colony probably will be ended by tomorrow afternoon.

State's attorneys today announced they had one more major witness and several small bits of testimony to present and their case would be completed. Following this an adjournment will be taken after which the defense will attempt to refute the charges made against the cult and its elderly leader, "King Ben" Purnell.

The last major witness, Mrs. Besie May Woodworth, will take the stand today. She led the troopers in the raid last November that brought about the capture of Purnell and also signed warrants by which Purnell will be tried on criminal charges this fall.

She is expected to testify concerning affairs that Purnell had with young women members of his colony.

RUSSELL SCOTT GRANTED NEW TRIAL BY COURT

FORMER CANADIAN MILLIONAIRE
ONCE SENTENCED
TO HANG

CONVICTED OF MURDER OF
JOSEPH MAURER, DRUG-
STORE CLERK

Springfield, Ill., June 22.—(UP)—Russell Scott, former Canadian millionaire, who was convicted and sentenced to hang for the murder of Joseph Maurer, a drugstore clerk, today was granted a new trial by the Illinois supreme court.

Scott was sentenced to hang in 1924 and twice received last-minute reprieves. Later he was found insane and sent to the Illinois state hospital at Chester. He later was found sane and returned to Chicago. Attorneys filed an appeal for a new trial.

The refusal of the trial court to grant Scott a change of venue is the reason for the reversal, the supreme court ruled.

The new trial granted Scott today is virtually the fourth time the former millionaire engineer has been lifted from the shadow of the gallows.

Twice, within a few hours of the time of the execution, Scott's friends appealed to Governor Small for a continuance of the execution date and twice it was granted.

The third time came when, within two hours of the hanging date, attorneys filed a sanity plea and the execution was automatically postponed. He subsequently was found insane and sent to an asylum only to be found sane a few months later and returned to jail in Chicago.

He has been in the Cook county jail since then. While his attorney—William Scott Stewart—appeared before the state supreme court to attempt to obtain a new trial.

The shooting of Maurer was in a North Side drug store in 1924. Two men entered, held up the young drug clerk. Both were extremely nervous and before they escaped one of the men fatally shot Maurer.

An immediate search was started for Russell Scott, who had lost most of the fortune made in Canadian real estate deals, and his brother Robert. Russell finally was arrested and convicted.

Meanwhile the search for Robert continued. He was located in San Quentin penitentiary at the time Russell Scott was in the Chester hospital.

Robert Scott was returned to Chicago and tried for the holdup of the drug store. He was convicted and sentenced to a long term in the state penitentiary. Shortly before being taken to the penitentiary he "confessed" that he fired the shot which killed Maurer and that his brother was not guilty of the murder. No action was taken on this "confession" although it may be used in Scott's next trial.

U. S. REFUSES TO RECOGNIZE LARGE CLAIM OF NORWEGIAN

Washington, June 22.—(UP)—Following prolonged diplomatic negotiations, the state department has addressed a communication to the Norwegian government refusing to recognize in full or in part the $7,600,000 war claims of Christopher Hanevig, Norwegian citizen, the United Press learned today.

Hanevig charged that he was ruined financially when the United States government, during the war, took over his shipbuilding contracts in this country.

Minister Gade, Norwegian envoy to Argentina, has been here for several months as a special agent pressing the claims.

System Failed

The mother looked weary. "Trying to be too efficient," she said. "I laid down the law that every member of the family was to be efficient. They were to look after all their own personal matters."

"If father's suit needed pressing he was to take it to the tailor's himself and he was to tramp to the laundry with his collars. Son was to put his own buttons on his shirts and keep his chiffonier in order. Daughter was to wash her own silk stockings, take her own shoes to the cobbler's."

"And so on, each member of the family was to do for himself. And why am I so weary? Because they all flunked it after the first day or two, and now I am putting in hurried hours trying to catch up with the things they left undone"—Springfield Union.

Old Sport Is Fishing

Who discovered fishing? The answer to that particular query is lost in the mists of prehistoric times. The technique in ancient days varied little, it seems, from that of today. On the walls of Egyptian tombs have been discovered crude drawings of fishing scenes, proving that even in the days of the pharaohs fishing was not only an occupation but also a sport. The Egyptians of the lower classes are shown employing the hook and line to land their catch, while sportsmen of the Nile preferred the spear or trident.

328 INMATES OF PENITENTIARY STAGE MUTINY

OVERPOWER 14 GUARDS, HOLD
THEM PRISONERS IN
MINE OF STATE

PRISONERS OF LANSING, KANSAS
INSTITUTION FORBIDDEN
CIGARETS

Lansing, Kansas, June 22.—(UP)—Silence, the silence of expectancy, was the watchword at the Kansas state penitentiary today, as officials and prisoners alike waited for word from 328 inmates of the prison who are holding themselves prisoners in a mine of the institution.

No word has been had from the men since yesterday noon when they mutinied, overpowered fourteen guards and held the guards prisoners in the mine with them. The flare came as a result of prison authorities' refusal to permit cigarettes or cigar papers to be given to the men from outside the prison walls.

The mutiny took a more serious turn last night, when other prisoners rioted within their cells. One guard, J. F. Thomas, was stabbed several times by a prisoner and this morning was said to be in a serious condition.

The riot in cell house B was of short duration. Five guards were overpowered by a group of men, said to have been led by Delno Lautner, convicted of murder from Atkinson, Kans.

As the prisoners fled to their cells after being counted in, eleven of them formed a group near one of the inner doors of the prison and attacked the guards as they followed in the rear of the line. Thomas was the last guard.

"You'll play hell looking me in a cell," he told the men.

A scuffle ensued and Thomas was stabbed. R. H. Hudspeth, acting warden in the absence of Warden W. H. Mackey, noticed the disturbance and hastily summoned all remaining guards. These were quickly armed and rushed to cell house B.

Breaking in a window, Hudspeth shoved a pistol through and threatened to shoot if the men did not surrender. He fired two shots and one prisoner fell, shot through the leg. The others surrendered and today are spending their time in solitary confinement.

Three knives, apparently made from files, were found in the group. J. Dawson from whom one of these was taken is said to be the man who stabbed Thomas.

No action is to be taken by authorities in connection with the men in the mine. They will have to give up sooner or later, in the opinion of the officials. There is no food and little water available for them and it is only a question of time until they will be forced to surrender, it was said.

Houston, Tex., June 22.—32 long-term prisoners of the Ferguson prison farm near Madisonville are being sought in thick woods of the Trinity river valley today, following a break from the farm early this morning. Thirty-five men participated in the break, but three were recaptured.

The men fled after overpowering two guards, according to meager reports here. All telephone wires to the prison farm were cut and little information was available as to the break.

It is believed the guards were uninjured, from first reports. Local authorities reported the break but other than saying they had been asked to aid in search for the men, could give no detail of the affair.

STATE CONTINUES TESTIMONY ON HOUSE OF DAVID

ANOTHER MAJOR WITNESS TO BE PRESENTED IN
TRIAL

ADJOURNMENT FOLLOWS AND
DEFENSE WILL TRY TO
REFUTE CHARGES

St. Joseph, Mich., June 22.—The attempt of the state of Michigan to dissolve the now famous House of David religious colony probably will be ended by tomorrow afternoon.

State's attorneys today announced they had one more major witness and several small bits of testimony to present and their case would be completed. Following this an adjournment will be taken after which the defense will attempt to refute the charges made against the cult and its elderly leader, "King Ben" Purnell.

The last major witness, Mrs. Beattie May Woodworth, will take the stand today. She led the troopers in the raid last November that brought about the capture of Purnell and also signed warrants by which Purnell will be tried on criminal charges this fall.

She is expected to testify concerning affairs that Purnell had with young women members of his colony.

RUSSELL SCOTT GRANTED NEW TRIAL BY COURT

FORMER CANADIAN MILLIONAIRE
ONCE SENTENCED
TO HANG

CONVICTED OF MURDER OF
JOSEPH MAURER, DRUG-
STORE CLERK

Springfield, Ill., June 22.—(UP)—Russell Scott, former Canadian millionaire, who was convicted and sentenced to hang for the murder of Joseph Maurer, a drugstore clerk, today was granted a new trial by the Illinois supreme court.

Scott was sentenced to hang in 1924 and twice received last-minute reprieves. Later he was found insane and sent to the Illinois state hospital at Chester. He later was found sane and returned to Chicago. Attorneys filed an appeal for a new trial.

The refusal of the trial court to grant Scott a change of venue is the reason for the reversal, the supreme court ruled.

The new trial granted Scott today is virtually the fourth time the former millionaire engineer has been lifted from the shadow of the gallows.

Twice, within a few hours of the time of the execution, Scott's friends appealed to Governor Small for a continuance of the execution date and twice it was granted.

The third time came when, within two hours of the hanging date, attorneys filed a sanity plea and the execution was automatically postponed. He subsequently was found insane and sent to an asylum only to be found sane a few months later and returned to jail in Chicago.

He has been in the Cook county jail since then. While his attorney—William Scott Stewart—appeared before the state supreme court to attempt to obtain a new trial.

The shooting of Maurer was in a North Side drug store in 1924. Two men entered, held up the young drug clerk. Both were extremely nervous and before they escaped one of the men fatally shot Maurer.

An immediate search was started for Russell Scott, who had lost most of the fortune made in Canadian real estate deals, and his brother Robert. Russell finally was arrested and convicted.

Meanwhile the search for Robert continued. He was located in San Quentin penitentiary at the time Russell Scott was in the Chester hospital.

Robert Scott was returned to Chicago and tried for the holdup of the drug store. He was convicted and sentenced to a long term in the state penitentiary. Shortly before being taken to the penitentiary he "confessed" that he fired the shot which killed Maurer and that his brother was not guilty of the murder.

No action was taken on this "confession" although it may be used in Scott's next trial.

U. S. REFUSES TO RECOGNIZE LARGE CLAIM OF NORWEGIAN

Washington, June 22.—(UP)—Following prolonged diplomatic negotiations, the state department has addressed a communication to the Norwegian government refusing to recognize in full or in part the $7,600,000 war claims of Christopher Hanevig, Norwegian citizen, the United Press learned today.

Hanevig charged that he was ruined financially when the United States government, during the war, took over his shipbuilding contracts in this country.

Minister Gade, Norwegian envoy to Argentina, has been here for several months as a special agent pressing the claims.

System Failed

The mother looked weary. "Trying to be too efficient," she said. "I laid down the law that every member of the family was to be efficient. They were to look after all their own personal matters."

"If father's suit needed pressing he was to take it to the tailor's himself and he was to tramp to the laundry with his collars. Son was to put his own buttons on his shirts and keep his chiffonier in order. Daughter was to wash her own silk stockings, take her own shoes to the cobbler's."

"And so on, each member of the family was to do for himself. And why am I so weary? Because they all flunked it after the first day or two, and now I am putting in hurried hours trying to catch up with the things they left undone."—Springfield Union.

Old Sport Is Fishing

Who discovered fishing? The answer to that particular query is lost in the mists of prehistoric times. The technique in ancient days varied little, it seems, from that of today. On the walls of Egyptian tombs have been discovered crude drawings of fishing scenes, proving that even in the days of the pharaohs fishing was not only an occupation but also a sport. The Egyptians of the lower classes are shown employing the hook and line to land their catch, while sportsmen of the Nile preferred the spear or trident.
